Change In Interlibrary Loan Statistics

The Interlibrary Loan Department will be changing the method we use to track interlibrary loan statistics. Beginning on June 1, 2021, we will discontinue tracking interlibrary loan stats by individual library. Therefore, libraries will need to keep track of their own interlibrary loan statistics for annual reporting purposes.

Digital Initiatives on LibGuides

Digital Initiatives has a new home! Well, online that is. Digital Initiatives has launched a new page for itself on the LibGuides account of the North Dakota State Library (NDSL). If you have saved or bookmarked the previous URL, it will not work. Here is the new link: <https://library-nd.libguides.com/digitalinitiatives>. You can also find it linked on the Services for Libraries and Education page of NDSL's website.

Emergency Broadband Benefit

The Emergency Broadband Benefit is a temporary FCC program to help households struggling to afford internet service during the pandemic. When Americans were sent home during the height of the pandemic and adopted to telecommuting and online schooling, reliable, high-speed broadband became essential. As FCC Acting Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel stated, "Broadband is no longer nice to have, it's need to have."
